

Summer 2021 Special Topic Courses

~~COU-680-MM01 Advanced Theory, Intervention, and Professional Practice (3 credits)~~

~~Please email Dr. Penelope Asay for details pasay@marian.edu~~

COU-680-MM02 Current Issues in Mental Health and Counseling (3 credits)

This course covers current issues in mental health and counseling, including ongoing impact of Covid-19 pandemic, telehealth, trauma and resilience, and psychological well-being.

EDU-580-MM01 Linguistics for Teachers of English Learners (3 credits)

This course focuses on what teachers need to know about linguistics to reach English language learners effectively. It includes general and applied linguistics and focuses on the role of language in teaching and learning and implications of effective instruction in culturally and linguistically diverse classrooms.

~~HIS/GLS/GST 480-MM01 Odyssey Africa 2021 (3 credits)~~

~~Please email Dr. Adrianna Ernstberger for details aernstberger@marian.edu~~

~~NSG-680-MM01 Current Topics (1 credit)~~

~~This course will explore current topics that are relevant to the current healthcare environment, e.g., Opioid Epidemic, Human Trafficking, Teen Suicide, Gun Violence, Self-Care, Obesity Epidemic, etc. The current topic being discussed will change each semester, staying current with health care trends and concerns of the communities we serve. This course is open to all graduate nursing students as well as graduate students from other programs.~~