

Protecting Your Online Image

Make no mistake: employers will google you when you are a job candidate, and often what they find first is your personal social media accounts. Try as you may, there are a number of ways hiring managers may view your

Why Create a LinkedIn Account?

Contributes to your professional online branding

Employers are already on LinkedIn looking for YOU!

Allows for more detail and greater portfolio of work examples than a simple resume no 1-2 page limit!

Acts as a medium to meet contacts in your desired field and keep up with professional relationships for networking

When to Create Your Account?

NOW